Man Responsible for Paving Scam is Arrested

July 28, 2011

Harrisonburg Police now have a man in custody, who was wanted for a local paving scam.

On Saturday, July 23 Travis Shaffer was taken into custody in Frederick County.

Shaffer was served with the following outstanding warrants:

- two counts of obtaining money by false pretenses
- one count of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses
- two counts of entering property with intent to damage.

In late April, Shaffer conducted a paving scam and collected more than $8,000 from the victims.

Shaffer remains in custody at the Rockingham Regional Jail.
